What the church is FOR!

It has been a terrible year for much of the world. And when the world shows its terrible side, the church gets to speak boldly, with truth, grace, and hope to our communities. There’s never been a more appropriate time for us, as Christians, to ask ourselves what Jesus wants His movement, His people, His Kingdom to stand for.

In the Bible, God reveals His heart and character to us and asks us to reflect His character to the world! What does God’s character reveal? Here are at least four areas where God’s character shines...

Equality. Justice. Mercy. Liberty. These are clear and these are all God’s ideas!

We stand for Equality

God thought up humanity. He thought you up, along with every other person on the planet. And because we all bear God’s image – old, young, born, unborn, rich, poor, male, female, slave, free – we possess inherent dignity, worth, and value. So the church, carrying out the mission of Jesus in this world, stands for the equality of all people. We’re all precious to the Creator – so much so that He sent His Son, Jesus, to pay a ransom for all of us!

James, the brother of Jesus, understood the principle of equality and drove it home in his epistle to the dispersed Christians of his day. He challenged us to reject favoritism and prejudice and to practice something America needs now more than ever – empathy. We are increasingly, as a society, slow to listen, quick to speak, and quick to get angry. But James urged the opposite. James writes "Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry." (James 1:19)

We stand for Justice

It was the prophet Amos that Martin Luther King, Jr. quoted when he said, "But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream." (Amos 5:24 NRSV) God is just, and justice was His idea. Not only will God render justice for all of the sins of humanity, He will bring to justice all who oppress the disadvantaged. We stand for justice, especially on behalf of those who can’t stand up for themselves.

We stand for Mercy

Mercy is the act of giving good things, including forgiveness, to those who don’t deserve it or who can’t pay it back. God spares us because He loves us, out of mercy. And He commissions us to go and be agents of His mercy to the rest of the world. We stand for mercy for the oppressed. We believe in mercy so much, in fact, that we give our time, our talent, and our treasure to serving people and helping people who can’t necessarily help themselves.

We stand for Liberty

Jesus was the great Liberator, setting free all who were enslaved by sin who would come to Him by faith. We believe in liberty and in freedom. The church is on a mission to free captives, whether those in literal slavery (sexual slavery happens most in our time) or those living under the weight of spiritual bondage and addiction. In times like ours, we need the Prince of Peace more than ever. And He has commissioned us to go in His place, as His hands and feet, and extend the reach of His Kingdom and its values to everyone who will hear us. We carry out the ministry of the Anointed One...

"The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free, and that the time of the LORD’s favor has come.” Luke 4:18-19

Let the church rise up to speak truth, extend grace, and show radical love to everyone around us so that all the world will know the One whom we follow!

This well-known hymn was written in 1907 by Henry van Dyke. Henry was born in Pennsylvania in 1852 and became pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City. He later became a professor of English Literature at Princeton, and the author of several books. He went on to occupy a number of prominent positions at Princeton. In 1907, van Dyke was invited to preach at Williams College in Massachusetts. One morning he handed the college president a piece of paper, saying, “Here is a hymn for you. Your mountains (the Berkshires) were my inspiration. It must be sung to the music of Beethoven’s ‘Hymn of Joy’.” He later explained that, “These verses are simple expressions of common Christian feelings and desires in this present time-hymns of today that may be sung together by people who know the thought of the age, and are not afraid that any truth of science will destroy religion or any revolution on earth overthrow the kingdom of heaven. Therefore this is a hymn of trust and joy and hope.”

1. Joyful, joyful we adore thee,
   God of glory, Lord of love!
   Hearts unfold like flow’rs before thee,
   praising thee, their sun above.
   Melt the clouds of sin and sadness,
   drive the gloom of doubt away.
   Giver of immortal gladness,
   fill us with the light of day.

2. All thy works with joy surround thee,
   earth and heav’n reflect thy rays,
   stars and angels sing around thee,
   center of unbroken praise.
   Field and forest, vale and mountain,
   flow’ry meadow, flashing sea,
   chanting bird, and flowing fountain
   call us to rejoice in thee.

3. Thou art giving and forgiving,
   ever blessing, ever blest,
   wellspring of the joy of living,
   ocean-depth of happy rest!
   Thou our Father, Christ our brother,
   all who live in love are thine;
   teach us how to love each other,
   lift us to the joy divine!

Ever since the invention of the written language, people have recorded recipes. Handed down from one generation to another, and from one friend to another, we pass on the secret to culinary delights that have been discovered by or passed on to us. Recipes of old were often a bit vague and assumed a certain familiarity with the baking or cooking process. I saw some of my grandmother’s recipe cards that sometimes were little more than an ingredient list. Measurements might be “a pinch of this” or “a dash of that.” Recipes today have gotten specific with every detail and measurement precisely identified to leave no room for error. If followed to the letter, reliable results can be repeated time and again the world over regardless of the chef or baker.

I am often asked what churches can do to grow. People want to know what the secret recipe is to successful ministry today. Ultimately, I believe they are looking for a specific recipe that, if followed to the letter, will produce reliable results. This sort of copy and paste approach to ministry never really works. However, I do believe Jesus gives us a recipe for community ministry that can produce reliably faithful results, but it looks more like some of the recipes I remember my grandmother using: “a pinch of this,” and “a dash of that!”

In Luke 15 and throughout his ministry on earth, Jesus gives us the basic steps we need to effectively minister to our communities: we need to reach the least (the lost coin), the lost (the lost son), and the left out (the lost sheep). Every community around the world is home to people who could be described as least, lost, or left out. Our challenge as church is to begin to reorient our ministry to intentionally reach out and care for the very real needs of the people in our community who are the least, the lost, and the left out.

In the next three months, we will take a look at each of these one at a time. Remember, this is not a step-by-step detailed recipe that can be simply copied and pasted in your town. Instead, we will begin to discover who the least, lost, and left out in your community might be and take a look at the basic principles, opportunities, and challenges of ministry to the people around us that need Jesus.

As we go, I ask you to read through Luke 15 and begin to pray for you and your congregation to engage in intentional, authentic outreach to the least, the lost, and the left out in your own community. Pray for God to give you eyes to see them, ears to hear them, hearts to be filled with compassion for them, and hands and feet to go and minister to them.

It is hard to believe October is over and preschool has been in session for two months. Everyone has settled nicely into the preschool routine.

The Mother's Morning Out Class worked on counting by learning 5 Little Pumpkins fingerplay. We heard about the Bible story of creation and illustrated a page about each day of creation. We enjoyed a sensory art project by mixing red and yellow paint in a Ziploc bag that had a pumpkin face. We squished and squished until we made the pumpkin turn orange. We celebrated Orange Day by wearing orange clothing and eating a multitude of orange snacks. Mrs. Diana and Ms. Avis are very proud of the way their Little Hoots are coming to school with no tears and learning to share more. Hoot! Hoot!

The Fulltime 2’s Class (Forest Friends) has adjusted nicely to their full-time day. They studied On the Farm with activities including egg stamp and roll painting. They also made a pinto horse collage with shapes, a fun barn matching game with animals, and a corn pattern with paint and a bubble wrap mitt. Orange Day was celebrated by wearing orange clothing and eating orange food. Cheese cubes, orange jello, and mandarin oranges were just a few fun snacks. They had a week long "Potty Party" to encourage potty training.

The 3 Day Preschool Class was busy studying the units Numbers and Colors. They painted numbers with Q-tips and practiced their counting. They learned how to mix colors to make new ones. They studied Shapes by tracing and coloring them, and worked on the letters in their names. Halloween brought many fun activities! Yay, three year olds!

The 5 Day Preschool Classes started the month by studying Noah's Ark. First, they had to build the ark (with popsicle sticks), then they had to fill the ark with animals (animal crackers), then the rains came (a rain headband), then the dove was sent (a paper plate dove), and finally a rainbow appeared in the sky as God’s promise (a cottonball cloud with colored streamers). One of our favorite units is Cowboy Week. We decorated a boot and made a paper towel stick horse. On the last day, the children dressed in their finest duds and ate "grub" at snack time around a make believe campfire. They also studied pumpkins and how they grow, God’s Fall Gifts with a nature walk, Halloween, and Healthy Habits. Chapel stories this month were House on the Rock, The Prodigal Son, and God Keeps Us Safe.

All classes enjoyed a trip to Braune Pumpkin Farm. October ended with a Halloween parade and parties. The parade was a big hit with parents and grandparents attending. Wow...what a fun and exciting month!
To Andrew and Kelli Cave on the birth of their daughter, Reagan Autumn. Reagan was born Thursday, October 17 at 2:37 PM. She is 19 ½” long and weighed 6 lbs. and 14oz! We thank God for this wonderful blessing to the Caves and to our Faith family!
Salvation Army Kicks Off Bell Ringing Campaign

Once again, as in past years, Faith members are called upon to participate in the annual local Salvation Army Kettle Campaign. The Guadalupe County/Seguin unit is known locally as the “go to” resource for offering financial assistance with utility bills and rent, temporary housing, and disaster relief. There are three sign-up sheets located in the narthex, one for Saturday, November 30th, and Saturday, December 2nd. Locations for these bell ringing days will be the Home and Pharmacy entrance of the Seguin Walmart. (If enough volunteers, a kettle will be added to the Outdoor Living entrance.) Please consider giving a gift of your time this holiday season and volunteer for a two-hour time slot. For more information, contact Bryan Terp or any member of the Social Concerns Committee.
